

Virginia Director of Urban Programming for Clear Channel

November 3, 2010 -- Clear Channel Norfolk and Clear Channel Richmond welcomes programming vet Kashon Powell to the position of Virginia Director of Urban Programming. Kashon is inbound from CC Philadelphia and will oversee programming for heritage brands WOWI (103 Jamz) and WKUS/WKSA (92.1 and 107.7 Kiss FM) in Norfolk and WBTJ in Richmond.

"I'm excited about this new chapter in my career and I would like to not only thank Ruth Stoutermire, Travis Dylan, & Doc Wynter for this great opportunity, but also thank my CC Philadelphia family – John Rohm, Brian Check and Ken Johnson." Ruth Stoutermire had this to say; "Kashon is a great addition to our very talented team in Norfolk and Richmond. She will be bringing a wealth of experience and a great track record and we are thrilled to have her on board."

On a separate and equally exciting note, CC Richmond is thrilled to announce the much deserved promotion of Mike Street to Program Director for Urban powerhouse WBTJ. Dave Symonds stated "Ruth and I have believed in Mike for quite some time. He competed for this position with many of the best PD's in the country, and now you know how it all turned out. He proved himself unequivocally to be the right choice. And! He will work closely with our new Virginia Director of Urban Programming, Kashon Powell."
