

PRESS RELEASE

September 15, 2010

INTERFACE © brings you the latest in TechEntertainment on the web each week.

INTERFACE is a weekly webcast that brings web viewers topical conversation around technology and entertainment in a mesh called TechEntertainment. Segments and vignettes include; News, Views, Interviews, Tips-Tricks-and-How-To's, Product Reviews and interaction from the viewers in a live chatroom.

While there are many webcast available on the web, INTERFACE focuses on media based technologies, old and new.

INTERFACE's inaugural webcast was in June 2010 and has covered topics from Vinyl, LP and Cassettes to ProAudio to home and business class computer technologies. INTERFACE has also featured exclusive interviews with film makers, major audio companies and restoration experts.

In addition to live webcasts, INTERFACE maintains a vignette repository on Youtube.com, on-demand FREE full length playback of all previous shows and a 24x7x365 Online Chatroom. Also, viewers can reach the hosts directly via email and Skype.
