MEDIA ADVISORY

The John Fredericks Morning Show - Common Sense for the Commonwealth, which airs M-F, 6AM-9AM on WHKT AM 1650 in Hampton Roads and WLEE AM News/Talk AM 990 in Richmond will debut on WTNT AM 730 and FM 102.9 “The Truth” in Washington DC Metro/ Northern Virginia on August 27.

The John Fredericks Morning Show will be broadcasting live from the floor of the Republican National Convention in Tampa FL. August 27-31.

The conservative news/talk show brands itself as the “Straight Talk Express -- With No Nonsense, Just Common Sense.” The format is high octane interviews with prominent guests from all sides of the political spectrum. Recent guests on the show have included Gov. Mitt Romney, VA Gov. Bob McDonnell, LA Gov. Bobby Jindal, former House Speaker Newt Gingrich, U.S. Sen. John McCain, Republican Study Committee Chairman Rep. Tom Price, Rep. Randy Forbes, Rep. Scott Rigell, Rep. C. “Bobby” Scott, DNC Chair Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz and many others.

“The John Fredericks Show is now the undisputed and preeminent conservative talk show in Virginia,” claimed Rep. Randy Forbes (R-VA/4th) recently.

“Metro Radio is excited to bring another powerful and profound voice to the nation’s capital,” said David Houston, CEO of Metro Radio, Inc. “John’s no-nonsense, hard hitting and common sense approach is a great addition both to our station and to the Washington D.C.-Northern Virginia market. We are proud to carry his show.”

Stuart W. Epperson, co-founder and chairman of Salem Communications and a member of the conservative Council for National Policy -- an advisor to WHKT AM 1650 -- said it was critical to bring live coverage of the 2012 Republican National Convention to the residents of Hampton Roads. “We are very pleased to have John and his show broadcasting live to our listening audience at WHKT AM 1650 in Tidewater,” Epperson commented. “This is an important event and it provides the WHKT audience and the region with a very informative and substantial first-hand view of the proceedings in an unfettered media environment.” Epperson was the Republican nominee for the fifth Congressional district of North Carolina in 1984 and 1986.
