WAVY-TV 10 and FOX43 Win NPPA Station of the Year Award For a Third Time

Portsmouth, VA – March 20, 2012: The National Press Photographers Association has selected WAVY-TV 10 and FOX43 as the Medium Market Television News Photography Station of the Year for the third year in a row in the 2012 Best of Photojournalism Television competition.

"It's great to work in one of the best TV News Departments in the country," said Chief Photographer Jeff Myers. "We work hard to bring our viewers informative, compelling and relevant news stories on a daily basis so we are thrilled to be recognized as the best on a national level."

The judges were riveted by the solid work of Photojournalists Aaron Kurtz, Kenny Becker, Joel Hilton, Andy Miller, Nick Morone and Chris Omahen. The talented team was recognized for vividly painting the picture and telling the heart-felt stories of the lives of Hampton Roads residents. Stories such as the "SWAT Team Take Down", "The Lost VMI College Ring", "The Childhood Cancer Lemonade Stand" and "The Cape Hatteras Flood" impressed the judges with the well composed shots and natural moments captured in all of the videos.

Every year, the National Press Photographers Association honors those who have supported the organization, assisted photojournalists, and have contributed to excellence in the profession of photojournalism. WAVY-TV 10 and FOX43 are proud to be among those recognized for exemplifying superior photojournalism two years in a row.
