

NEWPORT NEWS TV LAUNCHES NEW AND IMPROVED WEBSITE AT <http://nntv.nngov.com>

Monday June 25, 2012; The dedicated cable channel for Newport News on Cox Cable Ch. 48/Verizon FiOS Ch. 19, debuts a new website today with easy to find links to current and archived programs. Bookmark <http://nntv.nngov.com> to view City Council meetings and Planning Commission meetings live online and hundreds of original programs on demand.

Newport News in Review, Inside Newport News, Crimeline and many other NNTV productions are now easier to navigate and watch using this new website. Plus, all residents continue to have access to watch live streaming of NNTV 24/7.

“The work done by the Newport News IT Department to build and launch this new site is impressive, says Paula Hersh, General Manager of NNTV, NNTV online now highlights new shows and the variety of programming available on demand to educate and inform the citizens on the history and current events of Newport News and watch our elected officials at work.”

This week our brand new Newport News in Review: Lee Hall Mansion, premieres on the cable channel and as the featured program on the website. This edition of NNIR includes the history of Lee Hall Mansion, NN Vehicle Services' use of Propane Gas and the beauty of Huntington Park Rose Garden. You can see NNIR on Cox 48 or Verizon 19 or on demand anytime at <http://nntv.nngov.com>

For more information or questions about NNTV or nntv.nngov.com please contact:
Paula Hersh
757-591-4831
phersh@nngov.com