Portsmouth, VA – June 10, 2009 –WAVY TV 10 won a regional Emmy Award at the 51st Emmy Awards held on June 6th in Washington, D.C. The ceremony was sponsored by the National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The station was recognized for its continuing team coverage of the Suffolk Tornado of 2008.

“We could not have done this without contributions from producers, photographers, editors, assignment editors, anchors, reporters, weather, sports and support staffs and your spouses,” said News Director Kathy Hostetter. “This award reflects our On Your Side commitment to Hampton Roads.”

WAVY TV’s own morning and mid-day news anchor, Don Roberts co-hosted the event.

Also nominated from WAVY, for Feature News Report “Flashes of Hope” were anchor Tom Schaad and photojournalist Andy Miller, and reporter Derrick Rose for Reporter General Assignment composite.
