WAVY News 10 at 5pm, 5:30pm and 6pm features the leading news anchor team of Alveta Ewell, Tom Schaad, Nicole Livas, and Stephanie Harris and includes SuperDoppler 10 forecasts in HD from Don Slater, and SportsWrap with Bruce Rader.

“The WAVY and Fox 43 News Team consistently dominate in Hampton Roads with compelling, relevant investigations, news and weather,” said News Director Kathy Hostetter. “July was a busy month with exclusive coverage of the HRBT pipe problems; Michael Vick’s reinstatement to the NFL; an active severe weather season constantly tracked by the SupperDoppler 10 Weather Team; and the dramatic development of the Virginia Attorney General taking legal action following our 10-year investigation of Virginia Employment Services. Many of these stories and investigations are on going, and you can count on the WAVY and FOX 43 news team to continue to be on top of them.”

Once again, Hampton Roads demonstrated that they love to “Wake up with WAVY” as the morning newscast remained number one from 5am to 7am. Hampton Roads’ favorite morning news team features Don Roberts, Kerri Furey, Jon Cash, Cheryl Tan and John Massey. Viewers continue to depend on 10 TimesaverTraffic with Chopper 10 and SuperDoppler 10 Weather to help them prepare for the day ahead.

“I appreciate the hard work of our entire staff in creating solid, compelling newscasts every day,” said President and General Manager Doug Davis. “We are honored by the loyalty of Hampton Roads viewers who continue to turn to WAVY News day after day.”
