June 7, 2010—Portsmouth, VA: WAVY News 10 proved to be a powerhouse at the 52nd Annual Emmy Awards at the Ritz-Carlton in Washington, DC, Saturday June, 5. WAVY News 10's award winning team of reporters and photojournalists took home FIVE Emmys for their relentless pursuit of great storytelling.

The NBC affiliate earned five regional Emmys, leading all Hampton Roads stations in Emmy wins at the awards dinner for the National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.

10 On Your Side's Tom Schaad and Photojournalist Colin McIntyre won three Emmys for their brilliant work on "Monarch Marching Madness", their Sports-News Story "Johnny JackRabbit Brown" and for their sports news series "The Monarch's Zone".

"Johnny 'Jackrabbit' Brown was such an amazing interview and Colin McIntyre's work on that series was incredible," said WAVY News 10 Anchor Tom Schaad. "He had the understanding and vision of the story we wanted to tell. That's the kind of people we have at WAVY."

The Sportwrap's Chris Reckling along with Photojournalists Matt Mrozinski, Andy Miller and Colin McIntyre took home the Emmy for best sports feature with their riveting story, "A Moment I'll Never Forget".

"Our photojournalists worked really hard this year individually, and as a team," said Chief Photographer Jeff Myers. "It is great to be recognized by the Emmys - to be among the best in our business! This is a very proud moment for my photography staff and for WAVY TV 10 and FOX 43."

Reporter Oren Liebermann and Photojournalist Colin McIntyre also won an Emmy for best general assignment report within 24 hours.

"Our News team works extremely hard to deliver the most compelling and informative stories on WAVY News 10," said WAVY/WVBT President and General Manager Doug Davis. "To receive Emmy recognition among so many news organizations is a testament to the quality and relevance of our work. I am proud of our team's dedication and service in shedding light on the important stories in Hampton Roads."

The Academy's Emmy Award is the industry's benchmark for the recognition of television excellence. WAVY News 10 is proud to be among those recognized for exemplifying superior news programming in Hampton Roads.
