The Marshall Tucker Band and John Boy and Billy come to Richmond

96.5 KLR Hosts "Rock & Race 2008" at the National

RICHMOND, VA – September 4, 2008: 96.5 KLR hosted the first annual "Rock & Race" concert series in Richmond on Thursday, September 4th. John Boy and Billy from "The John Boy and Billy Big Show" greeted listeners for the Marshall Tucker Band concert held at The National. Doors opened at 7pm, with the Marshall Tucker Band taking stage at 9 pm. Several lucky listeners and other KLR guests attended meet and greets with the Marshall Tucker Band and John Boy and Billy.

The concert was a fun filled night that kicked off the big race weekend excitement. KLR gave away race tickets for the Emerson Radio 250 on September 5th as well as tickets to the Chevy Rock and Roll 400 on September 6th. Two lucky concert attendees walked away with autographed items. KLR gave away boots autographed by John Boy and Billy, courtesy of Red Wing Shoes. A guitar autographed by the Marshall Tucker Band also was given away.

96.5 KLR plans to make this an annual event to kick off race weekend at Richmond International Raceway, featuring the Emerson Radio 250 and the Chevy Rock and Roll 400. "We did two major things last night: began an annual event in Richmond and added to the already successful resume of Cox Radio Richmond," said 96.5 KLR Program Director Fisher.
