Norfolk, VA. WTKR NewsChannel 3 welcomes home Beverly Kidd. You may remember Beverly anchoring WTKR's 5pm newscast for a few years in the late 90's. Now, she's returning home to Norfolk, Virginia where she started her broadcasting career. Since leaving in 2001, Beverly has been the Evening Newscast Anchor and Health Reporter at KTVK in Phoenix, Arizona.

During her time in Phoenix, Beverly earned the prestigious Edward R. Murrow Award and she was named Favorite TV News Personality and Anchor of the Year by Arizona Foothills magazine.

"I'm so blessed that I am able to work with a group who are not only my friends but some of the best journalists in the local TV business," Beverly said.

"Beverly is a pro. She has built-in fans and she is excited about how NewsChannel 3 Takes Action and Get Results every day," said Tina Luque, WTKR News Director.

Beverly Kidd, an Old Dominion University graduate, will pick back up at WTKR on June 9th.
