

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
WTVR-TV CBS 6 TO BROADCAST SATURDAY MORNING NEWS

Richmond, VA, Sept. 16, 2010--- CBS 6 News in Richmond, VA will begin production of a Saturday morning newscast later this month. The High Definition broadcast will run from 6 a.m. to 8 a.m., starting September 18th, 2010.

“CBS 6 already provides viewers with the most locally-produced programming on weekdays, so we’re excited to expand our news coverage on the weekends,” says CBS 6 News Director Bill Anderson.

Veteran journalists Greg McQuade and Antoinette Essa will anchor the Saturday broadcast with CBS 6 weekend meteorologist Aaron Justus. In addition to being a longtime news anchor and co-host of Virginia This Morning, Greg has been honored with numerous Emmy awards for his work as a reporter.

Antoinette is a popular Richmond community reporter who has thousands of connections in social media.

CBS 6 reporter Lorenzo Hall will join Greg McQuade on the anchor desk for the Sunday morning newscast.

CBS 6 President and General Manager Stephen Hayes adds, “We fully expect our weekend morning newscasts to thrive given the tremendous talent and experience of our news team.”

####