

WORLD CUP SOCCER TO AIR ON ESPN RADIO 94.1 IN HAMPTON ROADS

The biggest event of the year comes to Max Media's ESPN Radio 94.1 (Virginia Beach) this week. ESPN Radio 94.1 will carry approximately 16 World Cup Soccer games LIVE from South Africa.

The first broadcast will be this Saturday, June 12, as the United States will open play against England. Airtime is set for 2 pm. "There is obviously a huge interest in the World Cup," stated Tony Mercurio, program director for ESPN Radio 94.1. "We will carry all three USA first round games LIVE and then almost all of the round of 16, quarterfinals, semifinals and third and first place matchups on ESPN Radio 94.1."

The USA plays this Saturday vs. England at 2 pm; Friday, June 18 at 9:30 am against Slovenia and then on Wednesday, June 23, at 9:30 am against Algeria. All times are Eastern times.

The World Cup will conclude on Sunday, July 11 with the championship game. "This will give Hampton Roads excellent coverage of the USA and the entire World Cup playoff format," noted Mercurio.
