

MICHAEL VICK TO DO WEEKLY SHOW ON ESPN RADIO 94.1

ESPN Radio 94.1 (Max Media in Virginia Beach) continues to add to its football lineup on the Tony Mercurio Show weekdays at 3 pm.

"I am proud to announce that Michael Vick has become a member of the ESPN Radio 94.1 regular lineup," noted Mercurio, also Program Director of ESPN Radio 94.1 (WVSP-FM). "Michael will have his own show on Mondays at 5:05." Vick, quarterback for the Philadelphia Eagles, begins his show on ESPN Radio 94.1 Monday, October 18, at 5:05.

Vick, who is a native of Newport News, will recap the NFL weekend, look ahead to the coming week in the NFL and will talk about his season with the Eagles...."I approached Vick about this and he quickly accepted," stated Mercurio. "Michael was on with me the other day and he did an outstanding job. He will add a great deal to our already fantastic football talk lineup during the week on my show."

"I will be on with Michael," remarked Mercurio. "Michael is really looking forward to doing the show on ESPN Radio 94.1....We will start at 5:05 and will run around 10 minutes and maybe as long as 15 minutes....The content is all up to Michael."

Vick joins an already outstanding lineup of football talk on the Tony Mercurio Show, weekdays from 3-7....Mondays Scott Cash of TV 13 at 4:05 and Vick at 5:05; Tuesdays at 3:05 Brandon from Phil Steele dot com; at 4:05 Chris Monter on basketball and the NFL; Wednesdays at 3:25 the Daily Press Report, 4:05 Dan Shonka from Ourlads Football Scouting Service and at 5:05 Braden Gall from Athlon Sports and at 5:30 Wood Selig, athletic director at ODU ; Thursdays at 4:05 football forecaster Phil Steele, at 5:05 former NFL great Roger Brown, and on Friday at 5:05 George Allen and at 5:30 Hall of Fame Sportswriter Bert Sugar.

"We are extremely happy with our lineup from 3-7," added Mercurio. "Michael Vick adds more great quality to an already fantastic lineup of guests."
