

CONTACT: Dave Bowling, (757) 627-9899

Bachata, Salsa Headline Latino Music Festival at Virginia Beach Oceanfront

A bachata star and a salsa legend are the headline acts of Hardee's Latin Fest 2012 presented by La Selecta 1050 WVXX. The event is a two-day festival of Latino music June 8 - 9 on the 24th Street Beach Stage at the Virginia Beach Oceanfront. The activities include a zumba marathon; the festival is free and open to the public.

Billboard Award and Latin Grammy nominee Andy Andy will perform at 9:30 p.m., Friday, June 8. Andy Andy has been lauded as an international ambassador of the bachata by Latin Beat magazine.

Tito Rojas takes the stage at 9:30 p.m., Saturday, June 9. The double platinum-award winner is known as "El gallo salsero" for his salsa music.

The zumba marathon, presented by the Mambo Room Latin Dance Studio, takes place 8:30 a.m. – 12 noon, June 9 in 24th Street Park.

The complete entertainment line-up is as follows:

Friday, June 8

5:15 p.m.	Salem High School Steel Drum Band
6:15 p.m.	Tombao Salsero
7:45 p.m.	Xperimento
9:30 p.m.	Andy Andy

Saturday, June 9

8:30 a.m.-12 noon	Zumba Marathon presented by Mambo Room Latin Dance Studio
12:45 p.m.	Caribanna
2:15 p.m.	Los Tarascos de Michoacán
4:00 p.m.	Bakalao Stars
5:45 p.m.	Hola Hi
7:30 p.m.	Jose Conde
9:30 p.m.	Tito Rojas

La Selecta 1050 WVXX broadcasts at 1050 AM, covering southeastern Virginia, the Eastern Shore, and northeastern North Carolina, and it streams live at www.selecta1050.com. On the air for seven years, its format is contemporary Latino music along with news and informational programming. Its studios are located in downtown Norfolk.

###