RADIO STATION ANNOUNCES NEW MORNING SHOW

Virginia Beach, Va. (October 15, 2008) – Entercom Norfolk radio station WWDE-FM (2WD) is introducing a new a.m. drive show to the station's Hampton Roads' audience, "Jenna and Mark in the Morning", beginning Monday, October 20, 2008.

The new show will feature co-hosts, Jenna Kehoe and Mark McCarthy, and will air weekdays from 5a-10a on 101.3 FM. Kehoe has been heard for the past 7 years on sister station, WPTE-FM (94.9 the Point). McCarthy has been solo on 2WD for 2 years, most recently in morning drive. Prior to 2WD, McCarthy was a Point talent for 3 years.

"Jenna and Mark in the Morning" will be a great blend of music and conversation facilitated by two very familiar and extremely popular personalities in the Hampton Roads' market. The show will be topical, interesting and fun. Continuous soft rock will be intertwined with lively conversation relevant to women and adults. The new show will also include news, information and "Skyangel" traffic.

"Morning Point" personality, "Woo Woo" will expand her on-air a.m. drive shift on 94.9 the Point and will continue solo weekdays from 10a-noon. Kehoe will be heard on the Point from noon-3p.

Entercom Norfolk Vice President of Operations, Don London, commented, "We are extraordinarily fortunate to have a roster of accomplished and versatile air talent on all 4 of our stations. The addition of Jenna to the 2WD Morning Show will allow us to bring her personality, charisma and insight to the 2WD audience. We are very excited about the new show and achieving the next level of success for all of our stations."
