

Steve Ray joins the John Fredericks Morning Show

THE JOHN FREDERICKS MORNING SHOW - COMMON SENSE FOR THE COMMONWEALTH is proud to announce the addition of STEVE RAY as Executive Producer & News Anchor to our morning show.

Radio has literally taken Steve around the world. During his over 30 years in major market, network & international radio he has served as a National Program Director for the English language services in both the Republic of China on Taiwan and Mainland China, reporting from locales as far flung as Eastern & Northern Europe, the former Soviet Union, South East Asia, Central America and at legendary radio stations in both Los Angeles and Washington, D.C., as well as most recently as a Co-Anchor for Americas Radio News Network and Anchor for their Top & Bottom of the Hour short-form news service.

Ray has had stints at the Westwood One Radio Networks (now Dial Global), Radio Free Asia, Metro Networks, Associated Press Television, WMAL AM & FM and at the Bonneville DC outlets WTOP, Washington Post Radio/WWWT & Federal News Radio/WFED.

Ray will also contribute to the show as a News Anchor and Guest Host. Ray holds a B.A. degree in Broadcast Journalism from American University and lives in the Nation's Capital.

The John Fredericks Morning Show - Common Sense for the Commonwealth is heard on 730AM & 102.9FM-WTNT in the Washington, DC/Northern VA area, 990AM-WLEE in Richmond, VA and 1650AM -WHKT in the /Newport News/Norfolk/Virginia Beach, VA area from 6am to 9am, Monday -Friday.

<http://thejohnfredericksshow.com/>