STUDIO CENTER ADDS NEW ASSOCIATE PRODUCER IN VIRGINIA BEACH

Virginia Beach, VA — July 10, 2013. Studio Center Total Production, headquartered in Virginia Beach, Va., is pleased to announce the addition of Matthew Polson to the position of Video Producer.

Polson, a graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University, has worked in Film/Television/Theatre since 2004. He is an award winning film director and has appeared as an actor in dozens of professional regional theatre productions, including two national tours and two world premieres.

As a teacher at the School of the Performing Arts in the Richmond Community (SPARC), Polson worked with over 1,000 students, some of whom went on to earn featured roles in "Lincoln" and "Man of Steel".

Polson, an avid golfer, tennis player and movie patron, will be based in Virginia Beach but will produce projects all over the country.

"Matt brings a whole new collection of talents to Studio Center with his acting and directing experience. We can't wait to see him in the field." Says William "Woody" Prettyman, CEO of Studio Center.
