STUDIO CENTER ADDS A NEW CLIENT SERVICE REP/RECEPTIONIST IN RICHMOND

Virginia Beach, VA — April 10, 2014. Studio Center, headquartered in Virginia Beach, Va., is pleased to announce the addition of Nancy Kamal to the double duty position of Client Services Rep/Receptionist.

Kamal, a Communications graduate of the University of Virginia's College at Wise, is fluent in the German language and worked as a cross-country coach while in school. Upon graduation, she worked as a 911 dispatcher for the Blacksburg Police Department; after moving to Richmond, Kamal served as a medical dispatcher and shift representative for Studio Center's main pharmaceutical account.

In addition to collecting tea mugs, Kamal enjoys target shooting and Cosmetology.

Kamal will also coordinate Studio Center's Internship program in Richmond, VA.

Commenting on her new position, Kamal said, "I am thrilled to have this opportunity for professional growth; I'm learning something new everyday. Studio Center has an amazing team of which I am happy to now be a member."

"Nancy worked for us part time for six months and was fabulous! She just took over our Richmond Location. I'm really going to enjoy working FOR her!," said William "Woody" Prettyman, CEO of Studio Center.
