On May 2, 2014, FM99 hosted the biggest party of the year – FM99 Lunatic Luau 14 presented by Cycle World – at Farm Bureau Live at Virginia Beach. More than 16,000 lunatics watched 12 bands on the Main Stage and the Fuzion Ink Tattoo and Piercing Studio Side Stage including Avenged Sevenfold, Five Finger Death Punch, and Killswitch Engage.

Kalbone's Off Road Vendor Village was filled to capacity with FM99 clients selling their products and/or displaying their merchandise. Concert-goers filled both concession plazas throughout the day, stopping by each booth.

Director of Sales Carol Commander: "We've heard from so many of our clients who were at the luau that they want to come back next year. Some of the vendors even sold out of their merchandise!"

FM99 Lunatic Luau originated in 1997 was headlined by Faith No More. Other bands that have played the luau throughout its solid history at the amphitheater include Nickelback , Kid Rock, Korn, 3 Doors Down, Shinedown, Rob Zombie, P.O.D., and Puddle of Mudd.
